Public Comment: FCC Proceeding 13-86

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. The FCC must continue to vigorously oppose ALL indecent content, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast content during hours when children are likely to be in the viewing or listening audience. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

Dear Sec. Drottk:

Please find Public Comment attached. The FCC needs more strict enforcement of indecency laws - not a loosening of standards.

In the name of American children & decency laws, please enforce moral standards.

Very sincerely,
Patricia A. Dresen

Please do not hand over the F.C.C.'s decency code & leave the Motion Picture & TV companies in charge of what's on TV.

Lest you think I can't come up with My own comments: Why would you want JUL 25 2013
to eliminate the current decency standards.
FCC Mail Room
Our country sinks more and more into Moral decay everyday, I can hardly find a movie, even PG-13, that is not offensive.
It's amazing to what depths we've sunk to, since 1939 when it was a huge deal for Clark Gable to say, "My dear, I don't give a damn." I certainly do not want to be hearing the "F-bomb," or seeing some one's nude body.

Please keep the decency standards and enforce them rigorously.

Thank you,
Chew Petullo
